Musica Viva (The Chambermaids)

Every year we look forward to visiting the musicians who come together to show us the wonderful instruments that make music. This year we watched The Chambermaids playing. There were five in the group (a quintet). The instruments being played were flute, bassoon, oboe, clarinet and the French horn. They are wind instruments made of brass and wood. One of the ladies told us that some people still play flutes made out of wood. We saw how music is played to demonstrate story with feeling such as fear, running fast or having a fight.

Madison and Aaron volunteered to conduct the musicians. The musicians played according to the instructions the conductors gave. They were lovely pieces of music both with great dynamics of loud, soft, fast, slow, smooth; both Madison and Aaron made the musicians work very hard!

NAIDOC Week

We take great pride in our traditional Australian culture at Corinella, living in a magnificent part of Aboriginal place surrounded by Manna Mountain, Lake Cowal and the magnificent Lachlan River Plains. Corinella is steeped in Wiradjuri history. This extends into Forbes, consequently it was a great celebration for Aboriginal culture in Forbes when we visited the NAIDOC celebrations at South Circle Oval, combining with Forbes High, Forbes Public, Forbes North, St Laurences and Red Bend school students.

Everyone had a wonderful time cooking the johnny cakes with lashings of butter and a variety of jams such as Wild Peach, Lilly Pilly, Wild Lime, Kakadu Plum, Wild Plum and Wild Rosella to name only a few!

It was a fun filled time celebrating friendships, foods, games, dance, art and the music of our local community. Thank you to the organisers in providing this experience for all to enjoy.
